

LET'S TALK...

A Conversation with Savannah: The Psychological & Sociological issues of Sexual Orientation through A critical & Theoretical Lens

Come join us as we have an informative and educational conversation with Ms. Savannah Sanburg as she shares knowledge and understanding with us about our LGBTQAI family and community with a focus on our transgendered brothers and sisters. Through this conversation she will share in her journey and experiences as a transgendered woman of color as she helps us to be fully equipped to be in authentic relationship and community with our LGBTQAI family.

Savannah Sanburg acquired a Master's degree in Social Justice from the University of Colorado Denver in the Fall of 2015. Additionally, in August of 2017 Savannah earned her second Master's Degree in Rhetorical Communication at Ohio University after completing her Doctoral Comps at Ohio University. Currently, Savannah is on sabbatical from Ohio University. Savannah has been an Adjunct Faculty member at the University of Colorado (Boulder campus), University of Colorado (Denver campus), and the Community College of Aurora in Colorado. Savannah has an interdisciplinary resume, teaching subjects that include: Freshman Composition, Public Speaking, Introduction to Ethnic Studies, Global Media, African-American History, Foundations of Ethnicity in America and US Popular Culture, Introduction to Africana Studies, Contemporary Asian-American Studies, and Global Media.

Date: Tuesday March 6, 2018

Time: 6PM – 8PM

Location: Evanston Center for Spiritual Wholeness & Healing
2122 South Lafayette Street
Denver, Colorado 80210

Cost: FREE!!!!

Dinner will be served!

RSVP: rpariswoods@uparkumc.org

By: Monday March 5, 2018